

```
Python program to delete data from table 'Software' in MySQL database
```

```
import mysql.connector as SQLCON
```

```
Connecting to the server
```

```
conn = SQLCON.connect(user = 'test_user',
                      password = 'Test123',
                      host = 'localhost',
                      database= 'matdeck')
```

```
Preparing a cursor object
```

```
cursorObj=conn.cursor()
```

```
Delete query and display table data
```

```
cursorObj.execute("DELETE FROM Software WHERE Number = 24")
```

```
Select query and display table data
```

```
cursorObj.execute("SELECT * FROM Software")
```

```
records = cursorObj.fetchall()
```

```
for row in records:
```

```
    print(row)
```

```
Disconnecting from the server
```

```
conn.close()
```