

```
Python program to update data in table 'Software' in MYSQL database

import mysql.connector as SQLCON

Connecting to the server
conn = SQLCON.connect(user = 'test_user', password = 'Test123',
                      host = 'localhost',
                      database= 'matdeck')

Preparing a cursor object
cursorObj=conn.cursor()

Update query and display table data
cursorObj.execute("UPDATE Software SET Number = 628 WHERE Name =
'ThirdSoftware'")

Select query and display table data
cursorObj.execute("SELECT * FROM Software") records = cursorObj.fetchall()
for row in records:
    print(row)

Disconnecting from the server
conn.close()
```